Community-based medical school, providing inter-professional medical education

Coordinator, Annual Fund and Advancement Services (2011 to 2012); Specialist, Alumni and Development (2009 to 2011)

Developed and executed a comprehensive annual fund plan, including direct mail, student-to-alumni phone solicitation, e-fundraising, and special events.

Worked with major gift officers to build and strengthen the University's major gifts program, including identifying and assigning prospects.

Managed development communications, including the University's first e-newsletter and the development and alumni portions of the University website.

Raised more than $502,000 in annual gifts for the University from fiscal 2011 through the third quarter of fiscal 2012, including the first increase in annual giving since 2008.

CHICAGO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY (2006 TO 2009)

Seminary of the United Church of Christ, preparing religious leaders to bring about greater justice and mercy

Special Assistant to the President (2008 to 2009); Interim Coordinator of Development Operations (2008); Development Assistant (2006 to 2008)

Provided a consistent presence during a time of rapid staff changes, including three Vice Presidents of External Affairs and two Presidents of the Seminary.

Designed and wrote for print and digital media vehicles, including feature articles for the alumni magazine (specifically around the sensitive issue of the sale of the Seminary's historic campus), the Seminary blog, and the Seminary website. Implemented online merchandising, donations, and event registration.

Spearheaded efforts to engage non-traditional constituents who shared the Seminary's values.

Managed the Seminary's development database and assisted staff in navigating a database transition.
